One brand:
Schneider
Electric

Let's make it simple with one unified brand
Schneider Electric

Merlin Gerin and Telemecanique become Schneider Electric

Gradually, Merlin Gerin and Telemecanique product families are marked Schneider Electric. Changes will be progressive and done by product family.

Step 2: New Marking for Schneider Electric Products

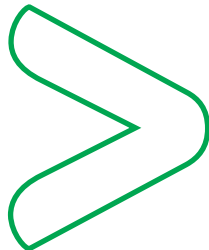

Merlin Gerin products are progressively marked Schneider Electric

Telemecanique products are progressively marked Schneider Electric

What will not change

The logo on the product changes progressively. The product's exceptional quality and use remain the same.

The Products

Same industrial origin, same technical characteristics, same products which won the trust of all the professionals, for their quality and performance.

The Commercial References

They will remain the same as those available in our catalogues and commercial documents.

The Quality

Same robustness, reliability and compliance with international standards, these privileged aspects will NOT CHANGE.

The logo found on the sticker of the outside of the product's packaging is the same as the logo on the product found inside the box.

From now on you might see

Sticker on the packaging with Merlin Gerin logo
>> Product marked Merlin Gerin

Sticker on the packaging with Telemecanique logo
>> Product marked Telemecanique

Sticker on the packaging with Schneider Electric logo
>> Product marked Schneider Electric
